

Earl's Diary - Sunday - September 7, 2014

Greetings to all my Loyal Readers,

This is the last official day of the sixth annual Nor Cal Roundup. This morning we held a buffet brunch. Several of our friends will be leaving after eating their fill of fine dining cuisine. The rest of us will be doing other things. A report has reached us that a couple of fellows will be trying their hands at catching fish. (No, of course not. They will NOT be using their hands. They brought poles for that purpose!)

Sunday Buffet Breakfast

Eagerly awaiting food to arrive

Line - out the door!

Dining al fresco?????

This report in from later in the day:

There was so much food left from last night's potluck and this morning's brunch that an unofficial "left-over potluck" was held this evening.

It has been reported that several fish were caught this afternoon. We even observed Skip barbecuing his catch. Dan also had a big catch. Alas, we weren't able to get a picture to verify the size.

Dear Readers,

This has been a busy weekend. This brings to a close the sixth annual Nor Cal Roundup. We have had many positive comments regarding our stay in Quincy so that we have made reservations to return here next year. There is lots more to see and do in the area. So, Loyal Readers, wherever you may be, thanks for coming along with me on this trip. - - Earl

Once again a couple DQ Blizzards appeared on my doorstep. (In my favorite flavors too!) The question remains, where around here did you find a DQ? "Oh it's just around the corner up the road away." I didn't REALLY believe that! Thanks to my DQ benefactors!

While I was out riding with Bill and Martha, we stopped at The Polka Dot frosty in downtown East Quincy. They have a varied selection of cooling treats along with burgers and fries. It was a warm afternoon when we stopped but they have a nice shady area with a small stream running through it adjacent to their building. There are even tables to sit and enjoy the treats.

54 People present

30 Trailers

Escape

19' - 3

21' - 1

Scamp

13' - 6

16' - 2

19' - 3

Casita

17' - 10

16' - 1

U-Haul

13' - 1

Tango

24' - 1

SOB - 2

The Group